Allowed Claims: 1-18.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed combination of limitations to warrant a rejection under 35 USC 102 or 103. Specifically, with reference to independent claims 1 and 17, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed apparatus for introducing a light beam into a pupil of an eye of a viewer to thereby project an image onto a retina, specifically including, as the distinguishing feature in combination with the other limitations, the claimed angle modifying device for modifying a pupil incident angle such that the claimed center line passes through the pupil at a fixed position, irrespective of a change in the pupil incident angle. Specifically, with reference to independent claim 3, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed apparatus for introducing a light beam into a pupil of an eye of a viewer to thereby project an image onto a retina, specifically including, as the distinguishing feature in combination with the other limitations, the claimed angle modifying device including the claimed first and second modifiers with the second modifier for modifying the pupil incident angle with respect to a second modifying direction intersecting the claimed first modifying direction. Specifically, with reference to independent claim 10, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed apparatus for introducing a light beam into a pupil of an eye of a viewer to thereby project an image onto a retina, specifically including, as the distinguishing feature in combination with the other limitations, the
